

July 2021 Newsletter

President's Letter

Hello Fellow FVQ members,

This is my first article for the newsletter, and I am going to turn it into a "help-wanted ad".

The Guild is an especially important part of my life and I hope yours too. To make sure that we are active and have successful programming and activities takes everyone stepping up and participating. The Guild is only as good as the total of its parts – YOU.

Most important, we are still in need to someone to step up and serve as Vice-President. I realize that this is a two-year commitment but filling this Board Position is crucial for the smooth continuation of the Guild. Without consistency within the Board leadership the Guild might as well fold-up and cease to-be.

The other vacant Board positions are Publicity and one more member of the Programming Committee. The Publicity person is responsible to make sure our activities are publicized, and the Face Book page is active. The Programming person will work with Gail Burk and Connie Beilstein to plan the Guild programs for the coming years and help the monthly speakers feel comfortable and welcome.

The Guild also needs members to step forward to fill a few Committee positions. For many years Sue Gauvain has served as the Guild Photographer. She is stepping aside, and we need someone with a good camera and some computer skills to step forward. The Photographer takes pictures of the show-and-tell quilts, and if permissible, of the speaker's quilts and then uploads the pictures to the Guild Website via Flickr. The Guild is also in need of members to take on the Mystery Night program and the Fabric Swap Box.

Lastly, I would like to thank the members who are continuing in their jobs. Alberta Culley and Phyllis Small are continuing with coordinating the Neonatal Quilts project. Peggy Thomsen and Kathie Fallon are continuing with the ABC Project. Linnea Amodio will continue with the Friendship Blocks, Diane Calkin with the Challenge Quilts, Kathy Lettieri with Sunshine, and Donna Gosselin and Marie Knapps as the Hospitality Committee." And, finally, the Library Committee, Lois Palmer and Kitty Vangunten, will continue. THANKS so much to all of you.

We will be starting up with in-person meetings at Eno Memorial Hall in September and I really look forward to seeing all of you. Have a great summer!

Anne Dodge

Treasurer's Update

The knowledge transfer process between Sue Trimble and myself continues with an expectation that we will be completed by the end of August, early September. We will continue to operate as "One Treasurer" during the months of July and August to allow for learning and proper closure to the current fiscal reporting year.

All accounts are current, balanced and in good standing. All State of CT and IRS Filings are current.

The budget, as well as the monthly Treasurer's Reports, are available to all members to review via our "Members-only" website page following our membership meeting this month.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding guild finances, please don't hesitate to reach out directly.

Caroline Berman, Out-Going Treasurer and Sue Trimble, New Treasurer for 2021-2022

President's Quilt Top

Karen Kebinger was presented with her President's Quilt top on Saturday July 3rd. A big Thank You to Karen for leading the Guild through a tough year. Also, a special thanks to all the Guild members who contributed a block and to Katha Kerr for all her help shopping, cutting and sewing.

Quilt Show

Quilt Show Committee Report

By Maureen Hulsart

The Quilt Show Committee is already working to host our 2022 show. I think we are all looking forward to attending some quilt shows and getting things “back to normal”.

A small sub-committee is investigating alternate locations to host our show and recently toured a location which would give us more square footage in a lovely, convenient location. It is an exciting option and we are in discussions with that site regarding rental fees and contract provisions. I’ll keep you posted.

In the meantime, several of the 2018 Show Committee members can no longer serve due to family considerations; they have moved or health reasons. Therefore, there are several vacancies I will be looking to fill. Many hands make light work and it takes many hands to pull-off a successful show. Our planning meetings will primarily be Zoom meetings, so you can attend in your pajamas if you so choose. I’m looking for your ideas, enthusiasm and help in rolling-out a fun and successful show. At this time, I need several people to step-up, so please consider volunteering for one of the following vacancies:

- Volunteer Scheduling
- Program Book
- Publicity
- Decorations
- Quilt Intake
- Treasurer
- Quilt Registration
- Raffle Baskets – I need two volunteer

If you should have any questions about any of the above-named volunteer spots please feel free to contact me. My email is musiconthestreet@comcast.net. We have written outlines regarding how each task is performed to assist you and people with past experience that can also guide you.

Please consider volunteering your time toward a successful 2022 Quilt Show.

Programs and Workshops

A heartfelt thank you to Connie Beilstein for agreeing to assist with program planning. Looking ahead to an interesting and varied fall lineup, the following presenters include:

September 15:

Jan Doyle will present "Quilts and the Underground Railroad: Fact or Fiction?" This unique and attention-grabbing lecture will provide stories of secret codes, hidden messages, and forbidden talk. It will be up to each of us to evaluate the evidence Jan provides and draw our own conclusions.

October 20:

Nancy Sullivan and Lynn Thibault will present "The Quilt Clinic." This lecture will provide a clinical approach to reviving our UFO's (unfinished fabric objects). Nancy and Lynn will help us find a way to finish a quilt that we may have thought had insurmountable issues. Their trunk show will feature some of their success stories and why they took on the challenge.

November 17-18:

The artist Jane Davila will present "Elements of Design." Jane will follow up her lecture the next day with a workshop titled "Surface Design Sampler." In this workshop, you will play with a large variety of material and supplies on fabric - paintstiks, inks, paints, mediums, metallic foil, inkstense pencils, water-soluble pastels and more. Let the creativity begin!

Gail Burk, Connie Beilstein

Socials

As you may already know, the July and August all-day sew-in programs have been cancelled due to the pandemic. Hopefully, we'll be back on track and hold our December social. I welcome your support in joining this committee to plan for the January and February Guild meetings!

Sue Underwood

ABC Quilts

We've cleared out the closet and labeled the three quilts to be presented in August to incoming freshmen at the ABC House.

The quilt top is done for the next quilt and as soon as it is quilted and bound, it will go into the closet for next year. We are in the process of kitting up blocks for two more quilts for the 2022-2023 freshmen class. That will mean three matching quilts in different color ways. Stay tuned for distribution of kits at the October meeting.

Peggy & Kathie

CT Hang-a-Quilt Day

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Third Annual Hang-a-Quilt Day. It is your help and enthusiasm which have made it so much fun and grown every year. This year we listed on our website homes by town where quilts were displayed. We had 20 patriotic quilts on the Simsbury Center Cemetery fence and 20 more on the fence at the Simsbury Historical Society. Both were impressive displays. I learned of other towns where displays were done as well. Several quilt shops made events out of the day. Our website has many pictures, but if you have others, please send them to Lisa Salvatore, lisa.b.salvatore@gmail.com.

Thank again.
Susan Elliott

Neonatal Quilts

THANK YOU, THANK YOU. WE DID IT AGAIN!!

Our June collection day generated 61 quilts and 37 scent cloths. A very grateful Shari Galvin noted that UCONN NICU has been experiencing a baby boom. The facility usually averages 6 to 8 babies in the unit. Recent averages have soared to 26 including 8 sets of twins! She then told a heartwarming story. A quilt containing Celtic fabric was chosen by a dad who migrated here from Ireland three years ago. He was so happy that he took several pictures for transmission to his folks back home. Our quilts continue to make wonderful connections! Thank you to all of our quilters for your patience and support. Thank you also to Phyllis and Maureen for providing drop off locations. In this difficult year we broke all records with 304 quilts and 184 scent cloths collected – BRAVO. Have a safe summer but keep quilting. Apparently the babies will keep coming.

Alberta and Phyllis

NEQM SHOW OPPORTUNITY 2021

NEW ENGLAND QUILT MUSEUM EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY 2022

As supporting members of the New England Quilt Museum, participating guilds are offered the opportunity to exhibit one quilt from a guild member to be displayed at the Museum during their 2022 Summer Celebration exhibit.

Because we will not have a quilt show in 2021 from which to choose a quilt, we decided to let the guild vote on our best quilt at a Show and Tell in early 2022.

So please continue making your fabulous quilts. Be prepared for a live show and tell or with a good photo of your submission. More information will be provided when we get it from the Museum.

If you have any questions, please give me a call or email me.

NEQM Guest Passes

NEW ENGLAND QUILT MUSEUM GUEST PASSES

As supporting members of NEQM, we were given 4 Guest Passes (each admitting 2 people) for our members to enjoy. The Museum is now open with Covid restrictions.

Also guild members who become members of the Museum receive one $10.00 voucher for any fabric or quilt making product purchased in the Museum Store.

So please let me know if you want one of these passes, and I will get it to you. NEQM is a wonderful place to visit (if and when we are allowed to travel again to MA).

HST Swap Participants

Thinking ahead to the next Quilt Show, we would love to have a display of HST quilts. As we don't have any details yet about The Show, specifics will have to wait.

Just keep it in mind - we'd love to see those finished quilts!!
